

Results

Primary Outcome

The postoperative length of stay was comparable between the ERAS and conventional care groups, with no statistically significant difference observed.

Secondary Outcomes

There were no significant differences between the two groups regarding postoperative pain scores at 6 and 12 hours post-operation or postoperative nausea and vomiting scores.

No statistically significant differences were observed in complications or readmission rates